DEVELOPMENT SECRETARIAT.

Revised form of Saguvali Chit.

ORDER NO. R. 1358-70—L. R. 16-29-2, DATED 22ND—28TH AUGUST 1930.

The question of revising the "Saguvali Chit" prescribed under Rule 56 of the Land Revenue Rules so as to improve it in respect of style, form and appearance commensurate with its importance as the primary document of title has been under the consideration of Government for some time past. The Revenue Commissioner, who was consulted in the matter, is of the same opinion. He has however suggested revised forms containing all the material conditions for the grant of occupancies under the ordinary rules, the rules governing grants to depressed classes, military applicants and for the clearance of lantana.

The Inspector of Office Systems agrees with the Revenue Commissioner as to the necessity for the introduction of the forms. Government are therefore pleased to approve of the forms suggested by the Revenue Commissioner, printed as annexure to this order, with the modification, however, that Form No. 1 suggested by the Revenue Commissioner will be substituted for the form in Appendix E, Land Revenue Rules, and that it will be called the "certificate of grant." The Superintendent, Government Printing, is requested to see that the forms are printed on durable paper.
